

Wonderful World of Wine

March 2026
Gary Parker Collection

2018 Bremerton Old Adam Shiraz

Growing Region.....	Langhorne Creek, South Australia
Varietal Composition.....	100% Shiraz
Fermentation.....	20 Months in French & American Oak
Alcohol Content.....	14.5%
Suggested Retail.....	$60.00
WineSeller Club Price.....	$53.99

Broad Strokes: 96 Points James Halladay

From the Winery: Bremerton Wines & Bremerton Vineyards are part of the Willson family-owned company, Bremerton Vintners Pty Ltd, in the geographical region of Langhorne Creek in South Australia. Langhorne Creek is unique in that it sits on the rich soil of the Bremer River flood plain and is known as a cool climate region, relatively disease free and a producer of exceptionally high and consistent quality fruit. Fresh cool evening breezes from Lake Alexandrina provide a microclimate of mild to warm summer days and cool evenings, perfect for the long ripening of the grapes producing intense and sought after cool climate flavors.

Winemaker Rebecca Willson and Marketing Manager, Lucy Willson have focused the family's wine range on high quality and individualistic wines. They have given Bremerton a strong foothold in the highly competitive wine market with Rebecca's first label at age 25 – the 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon winning a trophy and rated third best Cabernet in Australia by Winestate magazine. Since then the Willson Sisters have taken Bremerton to become one of the best-known brands from South Australia's Langhorne Creek wine region.

For the past 17 years Bremerton Wines has been awarded the James Halliday 5 star rated winery which ranks us in the top 5% of all Australian Wineries.

Appearance:

This is one of the sleekest wine bottle packages I have ever witnessed. Tall thin bottle, long neck, with informative collar neck and back labels, and a stunning front label graphics. The wine is cork finished, and the liquid is definitively black with purple edges.

Nose:

Super-enticing bouquet is complex and basically GORGEOUS! Deep dark fruits, exotic wood notes, spices, blackberries, currants, rose petals and violets'

Texture:

Densely packed fruits this wine is large in body and weight. However, it is not overwhelming with fruits tannins or acids. The texture is faultless, offering full ripe fruit pleasure without an inkling of harshness anywhere.

Flavor:

Magnificent dense fruits pack a beautifully controlled explosion of perfect ripe blackberry, black currants and black plum. Hints of chocolate, vanilla and cinnamon unveil beneath the sweet, generous touches of refined wood barrels. A total knock, deserving every bit if not more of the 96 Point Rating.

Serving Suggestions:

I suggest you buy 6-12 bottles of this wine & compare with Argot Syrah the next 10-12 years.

